ABOUT THE BOOK

Peter, a captive Southern Fiordland tokoeka kiwi, and his friends from the National Aquarium—Onion, a little blue penguin with an inner ear imbalance; Tim, a tuatara with Generalized Anxiety Disorder; and Rangi, a kea with clipped wings—embark on a quest through the unfamiliar wilderness of New Zealand in search of three ingredients needed to create an elixir to cure Peter’s ailing grandfather. Together, they traverse the length of the South Island of Aotearoa, all the way across the Cook Strait and back home to the North Island. They learn what they are all capable of in the wild of the wop wops, and what the world beyond the "Wall of Shadows" of Peter’s habitat is all about. The adventure begins January 16, 2023!

I LOVED THIS BOOK!

Peter Little Wing is a captivating story about a group of friends with unique challenges that must work together to complete their quest. Empathy, teamwork, and problem-solving are prevalent themes that children and parents will enjoy. This book is a terrific tale that is well-written and well-researched and gives beautiful insight into the lives of these creatures and the stunning land they hail from.
